Special Issue: The Geochemistry of North Atlantic Abyssal Plains. Edited by J.J. Middelburg and S. Nakashima

Introduction vii
Correlation, frequency of emplacement and source directions of megaturbidites on the Madeira Abyssal Plain
P.P.E. Weaver and R.G. Rothwell (Godalming, U.K.), J. Ebbing (Haarlem, The Netherlands), D. Gunn and P.M. Hunter (Godalming, U.K.) 1
Composition and provenance of turbidite sands: Late Quaternary, Madeira Abyssal Plain
T.J. Pearce and I. Jarvis (Kingston-upon-Thames, U.K.) 21
Extraction of pore water from marine sediments: A review of possible artifacts with pertinent examples from the North Atlantic
G.J. de Lange (Utrecht, The Netherlands), R.E. Cranston (Dartmouth, Canada), D.H. Hydes (Godalming, U.K.) and D. Boust (Cherbourg, France) 53
Shipboard routine and pressure-filtration system for pore-water extraction from suboxic sediments
G.J. de Lange (Utrecht, The Netherlands) 77
The factors controlling vertical color variations of North Atlantic Madeira Abyssal Plain sediments
S. Nagao and S. Nakashima (Tokai, Japan) 83
Distribution of exchangeable, fixed, organic and total nitrogen in interbedded turbiditic/pelagic sediments of the Madeira Abyssal Plain, eastern North Atlantic
G.J. de Lange (Utrecht, The Netherlands) 95
Distribution of various extracted phosphorus compounds in the interbedded turbiditic/pelagic sediments of the Madeira Abyssal Plain, eastern North Atlantic
G.J. de Lange (Utrecht, The Netherlands) 115
Behaviour and mobility of U series radionuclides in Madeira Abyssal Plain turbidites over the past 750,000 years
S. Colley and J. Thomson (Godalming, U.K.) 141
Accumulation rates and mixing processes in near-surface North Atlantic sediments: Evidence from C-14 and Pu-239,240 down-core profiles
G. Buffoni, R. Delfanti and C. Papucci (La Spezia, Italy) 159
Geochemical composition and inferred accretion rates of sediments and manganese nodules from a submarine hill in the Madeira Abyssal Plain, eastern North Atlantic
G.J. de Lange, B. van Os and R. Poorter (Utrecht, The Netherlands) 171

Letter Section

Magnetic lineations, fracture zones and seamounts in the Central Indian Basin
K.A. Kamesh Raju (Goa, India) 195

Regular Research Papers

The depositional pattern and distribution of glacial–interglacial sequences on the Antarctic Peninsula Pacific margin
R.D. Larter and A.P. Cunningham (Cambridge, U.K.) 203
A one million-year-long sequence of marine terraces on Sumba Island, Indonesia
P.A. Pirazzoli (Meudon-Bellevue, France), U. Radtke (Düsseldorf, Germany), W.S. Hantoro (Marseille, France and Bandung, Indonesia), C. Jouannic (Paris, France and Bandung, Indonesia), C.T. Hoang (Gif-sur-Yvette, France), C. Causse (Orsay, France) and M. Borel Best (Leiden, The Netherlands) 221
Simulation of grain-size abundances on a barred upper shoreface
J.T. Liu (Ft. Pierce, FL, U.S.A) and G.A. Zarillo (Melbourne, FL, U.S.A.) 237
A "blind-folded" test of equilibrium beach profile concepts with New Zealand data
R.G. Dean (Gainesville, FL, U.S.A.), T.R. Healy and A.P. Dommerholt (Hamilton, New Zealand) 253
Evolution of Holocene sedimentary bentonite in a shallow-marine embayment, Firth of Thames, New Zealand
T.R. Naish, C.S. Nelson and A.P.W. Hodder (Hamilton, New Zealand) 267
A two-stage model for the formation of smectite from detrital volcanic glass under shallow-marine conditions
A.P.W. Hodder, T.R. Naish and C.S. Nelson (Hamilton, New Zealand) 279
